Bangalore, 23 February 1905.

The Comptroller,
Government of Mysore
Bangalore.

Sir,

Referring to your letter, No. 4654 / 22.2.05 we have the honor to state that the sum of ~~Rs~~ 5390.4.8 is held to be due to Mr Wagh on the 30th June 1904, in respect of his secured loan in terms of the resolution of the Board of Directors, of the 13th idem. The above sum does not include ~~Rs~~ 2194.8.6, payable to Mr Wagh, in respect of his share in the Commission for the year ending February 1902 and which he originally claimed to be paid before releasing the property.

The resolution of the Board on the latter part of the claim is as follows. That the question whether Mr. Wagh is entitled to recover his share of the agency Commission by appropriating for that purpose any portion of the the Company's goods in his charge after the payment of the amounts of the Promissory Notes, due to him, is by agreement with Mr. Wagh, to be submitted to the Counsels' opinion - such opinion to be considered final and binding upon both parties, who are to bear in equal shares the cost of such reference But subsequently Mr. Wagh addressed a letter to the Board setting forth his reasons to be paid without such reference, which letter has been duly ~~forwarded~~ handed over to Mr Jayne to the Hon'ble Managing Director.

"Referring to the second para of your letter we therefore think that Mr Wagh may claim in addition to Rs 5390.4.8, as under before releasing the property.

(1) Interest at the rate of 6½% per annum on Rs 5390.4.8 from the 30th June up to the date of payment.

(2) An allowance of ~~Rs~~ 65/ per mensem provided for in his agreement for the same period.

(3). His Clerkship pay at the rate of ~~Rs~~ 30/- per mensem for the same period.
(4). His share of Commission Rs 2194.8.6.

We, however, hope although we have not approached him on the subject that he may be induced to forgo his claims under items 1 & 2 if it is decided to pay his share of Commission alongwith Rs 3390.4.8

The sum of Rs 227.1.0 so far paid to Mr Wagh on account of the stores, will be deducted from the amount to be paid to him in full settlement of his claims
